NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
The Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries at a meeting held in Richmond, Virginia, on April 30, 1982, adopted the following amended or new regula-tions pursuant to Sections 29-125, 29-126 and 29-127 of the Code of Virginia, to become effective July 1, 1982.
Chapter 2. In General.
R2-9. Any person setting or in possession of a steel leghold or body gripping trap or snare shall have it marked by means of a nonferrous metal tag bear-ing his name and address. This requirement shall not apply to landowners on their own land, nor to a bonafide tenant or lessee within the bounds of land rented or leased by him, nor to anyone transporting any such trap from its place of purchase.
★ ★ ★
R2-11. The use of body gripping traps with a jaw spread in excess of seven and one-half inches is prohibited except when such traps are covered by water.
★ ★ ★
R2-14. It shall be unlawful to trap, or attempt to trap, on land any wild bird or wild animal with an deadfall or snare. Provided, however, snares with loops no more than eight inches in diameter and with the top of the snare loop set not to exceed ten inches above ground level may be used.
Chapter 4. Beaver.
R4-1. Except as other-wise provided by the regulations appearing in this chapter, it shall be lawful to trap beaver from December 15 through the last day of February, both dates inclusive.
Chapter 18. Turkey.
R18-2.2. It shall be lawful to hunt bearded turkeys only from April 16 through May 14, 1983, both dates inclusive, from one-half hour before sunrise to 11 o'clock a.m. Bearded turkeys may be hunted by calling. It shall be unlawful to use dogs or organized drives for the purpose of hunting.
Chapter 19. Waterfowl and Waterfowl Blinds.
R19-1.1. In determining whether or not stationary blinds shall be licensed to persons other than ripa-rian owners pursuant to Section 29-86 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amend-ed, the Commission shall presume that the correct depth of water at mean high tide at a given location as required by said statute is that obtained by using the most recent "Tide Tables" and adjust-ments thereto published by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Adminis-tration of the United States Department of Commerce. Any person requesting the Commission to use an alternative method of calculating such depth, at a given location, shall bear the burden and expense of establishing to the satisfaction of the Commission, that such depth is in fact other than that obtained as described therein.
Chapter 28. Watercraft.
R28-1. (b) Notwithstand-ing any contrary or inconsistent provision of the Code of Federal Regulations now or here-inafter adopted pursuant to subsection (a) of this regulation, the term "rec-reational boat" as used in these regulations shall mean any motorboat or vessel manufactured, used, leased, rented or chartered primarily for non-commer-cial use.
★ ★ ★
R28-2. Occupied motor-boats drifting or at anchor between sunset and sun-rise shall exhibit at least one white light that can be seen all around the horizon for a distance of at least one mile. This provision shall not be applicable in areas where boats are regularly moored or in sheltered coves not nor-mally used by motorboats under power for through passage.
